

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations ix

Foreword xi
Justin George Watson

Acknowledgments xv

Introduction: What We Can Learn from Education in Prison in Comparative Context 1
Mneesha Gellman and Justin McDevitt

Part I Contextualizing Education in Prison

- 1 The Long History of College-in-Prison 25
Max Kenner
- 2 The Work of Restoration:
How to Educate When Education Fails 59
Maria K. McKenna

Part II Innovations in Teaching and Learning in Prison

- 3 College Now! A Public University Goes behind the Wall in Mexico City 79
Natasha Bidault Mniszek
- 4 Education and Training in Austrian Prisons:
Essential Pieces in the Reintegration Puzzle 95
Walter Hammerschick
- 5 Learning behind Bars:
Education and Reintegration in Dutch Prisons 111
Chester Lee

- 6 Evaluating Education in Norwegian Prisons:
Research-Based Approaches 124
Lise Øen Jones, Torfinn Langelid, Terje Manger, Paal Breivik, and Arve Asbjørnsen
- 7 Who Benefits Most from Correctional Education?
A View from Slovakia 152
Silvia Lukáčová, Dominika Temiaková, and Marek Lukáč
- 8 Preparing for Release: Academic and Vocational Education for Incarcerated Persons in Polish Executive Criminal Law 184
Grzegorz A. Skrobotowicz

Part III Challenging the Silencing of Marginalized Voices

- 9 Authorship in Prison: Stories of Identity, Resilience, and Renewal from El Salvador 201
Jennifer Coreas
- 10 Rethinking Education and Mediation for Incarcerated Immigrants in Italy 221
Maria Garro, Massimiliano Schirinzi, Gioacchino Lavanco, and Michelangelo Capitano
- 11 Effectiveness of Peer Learning and Peer Support in Prison:
An International Realist Review of Outcomes, Mechanisms, and Contextual Factors 247
Dorien Brosens, Silke Marynissen, and Liesbeth De Donder

Conclusion:

- Drawing Lessons from Comparative Education in Prison 274
Justin McDevitt and Mneesha Gellman

Contributors 281

Index 287

ILLUSTRATIONS

Figures

- 4.1 Flowchart of a proposed holistic approach to preparation for release 107
- 7.1 Participation of incarcerated adults in Slovakia (not counting pretrial) in the formal system of education between 2017 and 2020 161
- 7.2 Participation of incarcerated adults in Slovakia in formal education in comparison to the cohort of the incarcerated regarding their education level between 2017 and 2020 162
- 7.3 Participation of the incarcerated population in Slovakia in requalifying courses between 2017 and 2020 165
- 7.4 Stated motivations of incarcerated women for participating in educational programs in Slovakia (in percentages) 174
- 11.1 Most common peer-based approaches in prison 250
- 11.2 Categories of outcomes of peer programs for peer workers 255
- 11.3 Categories of outcomes of peer programs for peer recipients 258
- 11.4 Categories of outcomes of peer programs for prisons 260
- 11.5 Overview of contextual levels of influences on peer programs in prison 264

Tables

- 10.1 Incarcerated people in Italy enrolled vs. completed within educational courses for adults, divided into levels and teaching periods (2020–21) 223
- 11.1 Overview of contextual factors, mechanisms, and outcomes (CMOs) of peer programs in prison 254